Best Project Award

for the Academic Year 2014

Objective

1. To encourage post-secondary students in Hong Kong to appreciate the importance of occupational safety and health in their studies, the Occupational Safety and Health Council continues to organize the Occupational Safety & Health Best Project Award for the academic year 2014.
2. Each post-secondary University / College / Institution of Vocational Education / Training Academy is now invited to nominate up to five students for the Award.

Category

Nominations will be in 3 categories in pursuit of :

- (i) postgraduate program; or
- (ii) undergraduate program; or
- (iii) sub-degree studies.

Eligibility

1. Nominee should be a student attending a course of duration not less than 6 months organized by a recognized local academic institution in Hong Kong.
2. Students could be from postgraduate, undergraduate or sub-degree studies on a part-time or full-time mode.
3. All nominations should be made from the project supervisors with the consent of the nominees.

Number of Award

1. A maximum of 10 awards would be offered subject to the funding availability.
2. The Best Project Award will be conferred with a cash prize of HK$3,000.
3. Eligible nominations may also be shortlisted to receive a Certificate of Merit and a cash price of HK$1,000.
4. The total number of awards to be conferred is subject to the quality of nominations received, and is granted at the sole discretion of the Council.

Closing Date for Nomination

The completed nomination form together with a copy of the project report / dissertation for the academic year of 2014, as well as a scientific paper summarizing the project in one A4 size page (about 1,000 words) should be submitted to the Occupational Safety & Health Council, 19/F, China United Centre, 28 Marble Road, North Point, Hong Kong on or before 30 September 2014. All entries received would not be returned to the applicant.

Selection Criteria

1. Selection will be based on the student's project work in any subject area relating to occupational safety and hygiene, work ergonomics, accident prevention and loss control, construction safety, risk management, OSH for small and medium enterprises, safety and health products design, etc. The submission can be in the form of a dissertation or a final year project report.
2. A Selection Panel will select the suitable nominees from the nominations based on the relevance, quality and originality of the submission.
3. Decision of the Selection Panel would be final. The Panel will not be required to divulge to any person why a particular nominee has not been selected. All information regarding the nomination, nominees and the selection process would be kept strictly confidential.
4. Shortlisted nominees might be invited to attend an interview.
5. Successful nominees will be notified through their supervisors.

Publicity

1. Successful nominees will be required to provide the Council a scientific paper summary in Chinese.
2. The Council shall have the right to display, disseminate or release the findings of the OSH Best Project Award winning entries to the public in the form that the Council considers appropriate.
